

www.aspasa.co.za

011 791 3327

Register at training@aspasa.co.za

ASPASA

Aggregate & Sand Producers
Association of Southern Africa

Lockout Workshop

Employers, supervisors and employees all have individual responsibilities regarding lockout under the Mine Health and Safety Act

Workshop Presenter

The workshop will be presented by Tinus Jacobs.

(MPP – University of Free State, Electrical Trade Certificate, ETPD Develop, support and promote RPL Practices, ETDP Facilitate learning , ETPD SETA Assessor NQF Level 5, RPL Practitioner, Group learner Facilitator, ORHVS Instructor

To be held as follows:

27 June 2017 – KZN

Venue to be confirmed

Workshop Duration

The course will commence at 08:30 and end at 16:00 with a short lunch

Cost of Workshop

R1900.00 per delegate includes a copy of the workshop material. Minimum 10 delegates

Interesting Features:

- Why Lockout is Important
- Obedience to Orders
- Health and Safety Specifications
- Purpose of Lockout
- Locking out Medium Voltage
- Legal and other Requirements
- Lockout of TMM equipment

Who should attend

- Managers
- Engineers
- Section Engineers
- Team Leaders
- Foreman
- Millwright
- Electricians
- Employees

ASPASA

Aggregate & Sand Producers
Association of Southern Africa

Register at training@aspasa.co.za

Introduction

A lot of incidents/accidents has taken place in the work environment due to incorrect lockout.

The purpose is to establish “zero energy”

Background

Every year, workers in South Africa are killed or seriously injured because machinery or equipment was not properly locked out.

These accident can be prevented if machinery is locked out properly.

Workshop Content

What is Lockout

Why Lockout is Important

Employees duties as per the Mine Health and Safety Act

Purpose of Lockout

Legal and other requirements

Responsibilities/Authorizations

Lockout Devices

Electrical equipment Lockout

Lighting equipment and 220v plugs

Medium Voltage (1 – 11kV)

Self-Propelled Mobile Machinery

Testing of Equipment