BUA AND CBMI PARTNER ON CEMENT PLANT

Industrial group BUA has signed a contract with Chinese cement manufacturing company CBMI for the construction of a new plant in Nigeria.

The Kalambaina Cement Line 2 plant will be located in Sokoto State in the north-west of the country and is planned to manufacture 3million metric tonnes of cement per annum.

The announcement comes a few weeks after Nigerian authorities approved the merger between Kalambaina Cement and the Cement Company of Northern Nigeria (CCNN). BUA owns a 90% stake in CCNN.

AWARDS FOR AFRICAN MINING CAMPAIGNER

Nico Pienaar, director of southern African surface mining industry association Aspasa, has been honoured with two separate awards.

For more than 20 years as Aspasa director Pienaar has focused his energy on bringing about fair trade in the mining industry while promoting safer, healthier and more environmentally sustainable mining practices.

He has been given a special award in recognition of his valuable and ongoing contributions to the Mine Health and Safety Council (MHSC) as director of surface mining industry association, Aspasa. Pienaar was also awarded a CEO Global Titans Building Nations Award 2018 for unsung heroes of the African business landscape.

Aspasa director Nico Pienaar receives an honorary award from South Africa's Mineral Resources Minister Gwede Nontashe
